Pastor Beverly asked everyone to bring a piece of "thread" about 24 inches long: not a tiny thread but a piece of string, rope, wiring, yarn, ribbon, lace, a shoestring, or even a piece of cloth that represents you personally. There are baskets on the back windowsills of the sanctuary for your contributions. The baskets will remain till mid-August.

DELMONT FAITH UMC (FELLOWSHIP HALL)

305 FREEPORT ST, DELMONT, PA 15626

Rev. Amy Wagner, WPA Director of Congregational Development & Revitalization, will provide a general overview of information about the process that is designed to help you assess your church's potential for continued growth and vitality. This seminar is for both clergy and laity, and I look forward to every church in the district being represented.

Typically called a "Paragraph 213 Study" you will learn how this process includes the methods for you to discover: unique missional opportunities and needs of your community, growth potential of the surrounding community, and how to address a number of items that impact your ability to grow and thrive. Our Book of Discipline encourages every congregation to take stock of their present reality and future potential on a regular basis, and this process, which Amy will present and explain, enables churches to do just that. As you are considering decisions and visions that will move your congregation into 2019 (and beyond), this assessment will be invaluable for your church to be poised to be making disciples and fulfilling God's plan for your church.

There is a signup sheet at the "information center." Deadline to sign up is July 23rd. Terry will phone in our reservation.

ENGAGING IN MINISTRY WITH THE POOR MISSION TRIP TO HONDURAS

The Conference Committee for Encounter with Christ in Latin America and the Caribbean is organizing a mission trip to Honduras from September 22nd through October 1st. The team will help to complete construction of a church in rural Honduras. Although people with construction skills would be especially helpful on this team, ANYONE interested is encouraged to apply. For more information, email Encounter liaison Jodale Barnhart at jodalebarnhart@gmail.com.
