Pastor Beverly asked everyone to bring a piece of "thread" about 24 inches long: not a tiny thread but a piece of string, rope, wiring, yarn, ribbon, lace, a shoestring, or even a piece of cloth that represents you personally. There are baskets on the back window-sills of the sanctuary for your contributions. The baskets will remain till mid-August.

The Book Club will meet at 2:30 on August 27 at the home of Becky Blankenship to discuss Under the Same Blue Sky by Pamela Schoenewaldt.

"Filled with rich historical details and intriguing, fully-realized characters, Under the Same Blue Sky is the captivating story of one woman's emergence into adulthood amid the tumult of war.

The story begins in 1905 with the first recollections of a young teenage girl Hazel who dreams about a past that her parents said she never had. Until one day a name is mentioned and a story begins to unfold. Her story tells of the sadness and fears of the German ex-pats some who have lived in America for decades or even a generation and are trying to live through the WW1, the prejudices of their neighbors, the returning young men, so changed from when they marched off, and the thousands who never did come home or who came home only to be struck by the 1918 influenza, some even to perish before they got off the ship. "
