Thank you's...

♥ Words cannot convey how much our family is indebted to each of you on many levels after the unexpected death of our rock Elmer (Ed) Harwick. The warmth and caring we experienced from so many people either at the visitation and or the actual funeral service was what helped hold us upright.

The ladies that prepared the delicious luncheon after our return from the cemetery are a prime example of what true Christian's are meant to be.

Pastor Beverly, while not knowing us very well yet, spoke as though she did without sounding as if she was inventing our relationship to suit its purpose.

Even though this church was Ed's to begin with I have felt at home more so than any other house of worship in a very long time. Thank you for making me feel this way.

I pray to our Lord to shine down blessings on each and every one of you for your kindness and caring towards me and our family. I would ask that you might keep us in your prayers especially my children. They are still devastated while being back into ordinary working life once again.
