Twelve Days of Christmas by Debbie Macomber will be discussed at the next UMW book club. "Friendly and bubbly, Julia Padden likes nearly everyone, but her standoffish neighbor, Cain Maddox, presents a particular challenge. No matter how hard she's tried to be nice, Cain rudely rebuffs her at every turn, preferring to keep to himself. But when Julia catches Cain stealing her newspaper from the lobby of their apartment building, that's the last straw. She's going to break through Cain's Scrooge-like exterior the only way she knows how: by killing him with kindness. To track her progress, Julia starts a blog called The Twelve Days of Christmas." This tale of love, understanding and finding what you need is the perfect Christmas read to get you into the holiday mood. Taken from Allegheny County Library Association.
